· Have in place a commercial general insurance policy that provides reasonable levels of liability coverage for any act or omission arising out of Reseller's performance or nonperformance of its obligations as a Reseller. Resellers shall furnish a copy of such insurance policy within 7 days of the Registry's written request to do so.

 Not engage in, authorise or countenance (whether directly or indirectly) any activity which the Registry, in its sole and absolute discretion, deems to be designed to undermine or having (or would have) the effect of undermining the Registry's repute or interests including without limitation the Registry's business operations and status as its Registry role, or would expose the Registry to any liability or claim.

Confidentiality

The Reseller and the Registry ("Parties") agree that all information and knowledge relating to each's business which are marked "confidential", or with some other words of similar import or which are or should be reasonably understood to be confidential or proprietary to the Party and non-published information stored in their respective systems, except where permitted to do so in accordance with Registry rules, will be kept strictly confidential and is not to be disclosed or sold to any third party without the prior written consent of the other ("Confidential Information"). Parties agree to protect the Confidential Information with at least the same degree of care as it normally exercises to protect its own confidential information of like character and importance.

The Reseller agrees that the Registry may publicly disclose any information on the Reseller relating to the Registry's operation of the Registry system.

Parties also agree that Confidential Information may be disclosed by any Party when required to do so in compliance with the law, an order of court, or the rules or regulations of any relevant regulatory or governing body with jurisdiction over the said Party, provided that the Party shall give the other Party at least 10 business days written notice prior to the impending disclosure, and shall only disclose such Confidential Information to such extent as is necessary for such compliance, and subject in each case to the Party using its best endeavours to ensure that the recipient of the Confidential Information keeps such information confidential and does not use it except for the purpose for which the disclosure is made.

In the event of an unauthorised disclosure of one Party's Confidential Information by the other Party, the disclosing Party shall inform the other Party of such unauthorised disclosure as soon as practicable.

Limitation on the Registry shared system ("SRS")

The Reseller acknowledges and agrees that the SRS (or any part thereof) may not be available all the time or be error free or that the SRS would not cause any failure of, interruption to or disruption of the Registrar or Reseller systems. The Registry shall not be liable in any way to the Registrar or the Reseller whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or under any other legal theory for any loss, damage or liability incurred or sustained by the Registrar or the Reseller caused by or as a result of any defect, deficiency, breakdown or failure of the SRS, or the incompatibility or unsuitability of any software or system used by the Registrar or the Reseller in relation to or in conjunction with the SRS.

Indemnities

The Reseller agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Registry and its officers, directors, employees, agents and committee members from and against any and all damages, liabilities, obligations, losses, claims, demands, actions, causes of action, penalties, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, professional and legal expenses) arising out of or in any way connected with the Reseller's violation of the Reseller agreement and the present agreement howsoever caused, any agreements between the Reseller and the domain names holders with respect to domain name registrations, and/or any acts or omissions of the Reseller's part.

Applicable law and arbitration

The relationship between the Reseller and the Registry will be governed by the laws of Singapore.

Any dispute with the Registry shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in Singapore in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC"), which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference in this clause. The Tribunal shall consist of one arbitrator to be appointed by the Chairman of the SIAC. The language of the arbitration shall be English.
